

Totternhoe and Eaton Bray Walk

approx 4 miles - allow 3 hours

P Park in car park at Totternhoe Knolls. Walk back down road you have just driven up.

1 On reaching end of road, turn left and proceed along road, until you reach recreation ground.

The Old Farm Inn

Doolittle Mill

4 Turn left on to road and continue to Doolittle Mill.

5 Retrace steps back along road, past footpath just taken. (Careful, no path).! At junction with Dunstable Road, cross over and take bridle path almost immediately opposite. Continue along bridle path for some time. Where bridle path meets another path, take path to left. Continue as path becomes a road. At end of road, turn right and proceed along High Street. Look out for interesting and historic buildings as you walk through village.

6 After The Coffee Tavern, turn left on to Church Lane to take in cottages opposite St Mary's Church, dating back to circa 1600.

The Wesleyan Chapel

It is worth spending some time exploring Totternhoe Knolls, a nature reserve and ancient site, with the remains of a Norman motte and bailey castle.
